

JTS Looks Ahead

Welcoming New Students

Hurricane Irene might have delayed their arrival, but not for long. On Monday, August 29, 136 new students arrived on campus, moved into the residence halls, and began their academic and social journeys together at The Jewish Theological Seminary.

43 are pursuing two bachelor's degrees through List College's dual-degree programs with Columbia University and Barnard College.

27 are studying to become rabbis or hazzanim, as students in JTS's Rabbinical and Cantorial schools.

40 are learning how to affect the future as they study Jewish education in The Davidson School.

26 are enrolled in The Graduate School, studying with the world's best scholars of Judaism.

Never Forget

JTS commemorated the 10-year anniversary of 9/11 with Prayer, Reflection, and Gemilut Hasadim. The program began with a sermon on September 10 by Chancellor Arnold Eisen at JTS's Women's League Seminary Synagogue and continued on September 11 with several opportunities to participate in the 9/11 National Day of Service. On Monday, September 12, JTS partnered with our friends and neighbors at Union Theological Seminary to lead an interfaith service that focused on reconciliation.

Teshuvah and Remembering Loved Ones

JTS invites alumni to join their JTS friends and family on campus for Yom Kippur services. Please click here for service information and times. There is no charge to attend these services.

Admissions Prospective Weekend

JTS PROSPECTIVE GRADUATE STUDENT OPEN HOUSE

Sunday, October 16, and Monday, October 17, 2011

Find out about graduate study at JTS, or refer the aspiring students you know to your alma mater.

Join us for two days of learning with renowned faculty.

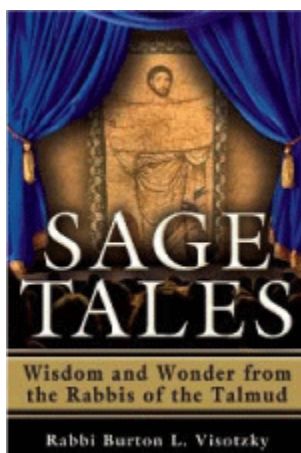

Experience our festive Sukkot celebration.

Meet with the accomplished students of The Graduate School, H. L. Miller Cantorial School and College of Jewish Music, The Rabbinical School, and William Davidson Graduate School of Jewish Education.

Don't miss this chance to revisit, or encourage others to visit, the JTS campus on New York City's Upper West Side.

Please register online, or contact admissions@jtsa.edu or (212) 280-6060 for more information.

Reconnecting with Alumni

New York City: List College alumni are invited to the annual List Alumni Sukkah Dinner on Monday, October 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Brandt Family Sukkah at JTS. Please click here to RSVP. Free to alumni, $18/guest.

Philadelphia: All JTS alumni are invited to meet with and hear from 2011 List

College Professor of the Year Dr. Burton L. Visotzky at Congregation Adath Israel, Merion Station, Pennsylvania, on Monday, November 21, at 6:00 p.m. Dr. Visotzky's topic will be "I Was a Spy for God." The evening will begin with a light dinner and time to reconnect with fellow alumni, and will conclude with an opportunity to purchase (at discount!) Dr. Visotzky's new book, Sage Tales: Wisdom and Wonder from the Rabbis of the Talmud, for him to sign. More information to follow.

Washington DC: All JTS alumni are invited to reconnect with one another and JTS faculty at the first-ever Washington DC reunion. Please join us at the JTS-sponsored cocktail reception during the Association for Jewish Studies conference on Monday, December 19, at 6:30 p.m. at the Grand Hyatt Washington. More information to follow.

Staying Connected

Please continue to share your current contact and professional information with JTS. This makes it possible for us to keep you informed of happenings in your area. Click here to update your records now.

Unsubscribe from receiving email, or change your email preferences.

nonprofit software