

JTS Springs Ahead...

Spring Is Happening at JTS!

Flowers are blooming, students are studying in the courtyard, and Frisbees are being tossed: spring fever is in full swing at JTS.

Pesah Is Spring

JTS continues to serve as a religious and spiritual source for the Jewish community at large. This year's JTS Celebrates Passover website provided innovative resources, from theater to online learning opportunities. Passover 2010 may have passed, but you can remember the celebration and look forward to next year with these links.

Spring Reflections

On a beautiful spring day, Sunday, March 7, more than 100 JTS alumni gathered to celebrate the legacies of the Teachers Institute and honor Dr. Sylvia Ettenberg's lifelong dedication to JTS, Jewish education, and the Jewish community globally. Photos, videos, and alumni testimonials can be viewed online; podcasts from each session are available for listening and viewing. To download, use iTunes and search in podcasts for "Teachers Institute." QuickTime is needed to enjoy our podcasts at no charge. DVDs are also available for $10 each and include the three sessions as well as Rabbi Harold Kushner's keynote address. Please email alumni@jtsa.edu to request your DVD today.

Spring Forward

The Wohl Office of Alumni Affairs is proud to announce the launch of its new admissions initiative: the Alumni Admissions Network. More than twenty 2010 graduates were trained to represent JTS and its outstanding academic programs to prospective students across the country. Participants in this pilot program were trained by JTS's three admissions directors and are now ready to serve as JTS ambassadors in their new communities.
